Redefining The Journey Of Your “Product To Client To Community Story”

Are you having the social and environmental impact you really want? #NoExcuses

Its time to tell a truly authentic story that shifts your business into being a leading light of INTEGRITY in your supply chain, that makes an IMPACT and gives you the IMAGE you are proud to leave as your LEGACY.

Conscious Impact Connector

Discerning clients increasingly want their actions to truly reflect their words – the time for lip service has long gone. What’s more there is plenty of evidence that genuinely ethical companies perform better financially.

I partner with large organisations; to shift their business integrity in the supply chain and radically improve their image whilst making the impact the world truly needs. With my expert eye, unique knowledge and over 30 years in the industry I leave no stone unturned to help my clients re-evaluate their supply chain, incorporate hidden gems in their organisation, implement change and powerfully communicate their values.

Is It Time For You To Align Your Values And Actions To Elevate The Integrity, Impact And Image Of Your “Product To Client To Community Journey”?

Over the last 30 years I’ve been designing, developing and delivering clothing and textiles globally within the FASHION, HOSPITALITY and HERITAGE sectors.
Helping align people’s values with their product and customers aspirations.

Clients include Soho House, the Ivy Collection and Buckingham Palace.

I’ve won 4 Major Awards and 2 Finalists’ honours in National categories of Business, Sustainability and Hospitality Uniform design.

I’m a sought after Speaker at UK Industry Shows, Panels and the International keynote stages

I align the integrity from end to end, evaluating how it looks at every stage. Providing a depth of knowledge, influence and expertise - a voice rarely found.
